
THIRD SATURDAY

Presented by the National Conflict Resolution Center
Divorce Mediation Services

NCRC is offering a new workshop on the third Saturday of each month for men and women who are contemplating or in the middle of divorce or separation.

In every workshop, experienced professionals will cover the following topics:

- Legal Issues: the legal process and procedures, laws regarding division of assets & debts, spousal & child support, sharing time with children/co-parenting
- Financial Issues: preparing for divorce, dividing the assets & the debts, valuing property, tax consequences, and other financial matters
- Family/Personal Issues: possible impacts on the spouses & children, how to be strategic, minimizing acrimony, how to help children deal with the changes
- Mediation as an Alternative to Litigation: the mediation process and procedures, the benefits of mediation, the costs of mediation
