Herbert J. Solomon

Overview

Mr. Solomon has extensive experience in various aspects of business and real estate transactions including loan workouts and restructurings. He provides a wide range of advice and counseling to both individual and business clients and assists clients in strategic and tactical business planning. He was president for seven years of a nationwide real estate development firm and a mortgage banking company and also served as court-appointed Reorganization Trustee in a nationally prominent bankruptcy of a diversified real estate and insurance company. His extensive experience provides him with a unique understanding of the practical, as well as the legal, concerns of his clients. Mr. Solomon is a graduate of San Diego State University and UCLA Law School, where he was Associate Editor of the Law Review and was elected to membership in the Order of the Coif. He was selected as the UCLA Law School Alumnus of the Year in 1988. Mr. Solomon has served as Vice Chairman of the California State Bar Committee of Bar Examiners, Chairman of the City of San Diego Housing Commission and President of the San Diego Symphony Orchestra Association.
