Peacemaker Awards

MAY 13 | HILTON SAN DIEGO BAYFRONT

The National Conflict Resolution Center is set to celebrate its annual Peacemaker Awards as well as the organization's 40th anniversary. The gala, honoring individuals and organizations dedicated to peacemaking in their own neighborhoods and around the world, will bring together more than 700 of Southern California's most prominent business, community, and educational leaders. The inspiring evening will spotlight the importance of civility, peacemaking, and social justice after several years of historic uncertainty and unrest. This year's honorees include Phyllis and Daniel Epstein, California Innocence Project, and Bipartisan Policy Center. Emmy-Award winning journalist turned social entrepreneur Lee Ann Kim will serve as emcee. ncrconline.com

Rancho Santa Fe Women's Fund Grant Awards Ceremony

MAY 17 | MORGAN RUN CLUB & RESORT

The mission of the Rancho Santa Fe Women's Fund is to gift grants to San Diego organizations that benefit children, women, healthcare, military, education, and social service on a rotating basis. This year's grants total $442,000 and are being awarded to military and women's services, bringing the organization over the $5 million mark in grants given out in its 19-year history. On April 25, the finalists for this year's grants will present their requests to the group, which will be followed by the May 17 luncheon and awards celebration where the monies will be distributed. rsfwomensfund.org
