

Julie Cobalt, Esq.
Mediator

OVERVIEW:

Julie is an expert at mediating unconventional and unpredictable disputes, with over 25 years of experience resolving family, business and other relational conflicts. She is the mediator who lawyers and their clients rely on and trust to break the impasse and guide them to a satisfying result. Julie's mission as a mediator is to bring closure to seemingly unresolvable situations.

When a positive outcome seems impossible and others have given up, you can count on Julie to be persistent and committed to discerning and creating unique opportunities for resolution. Working as a civil litigator, mediator, mediation and conflict resolution trainer, educator, and transition consultant, Julie honed her analytic skills, which enable her to assist people through some of the most challenging moments in their lives.

Julie was a practicing mediator, attorney, conflict resolution trainer and law professor from 1998 until 2018 when she moved to Dubai, United Arab Emirates. While living in the Middle East, Julie worked as a conflict resolution consultant, helping clients navigate transitional periods in their lives such as divorce, parenting, loss and changes in family structure. Having lived, studied and traveled extensively throughout Europe and South America, Julie is able to consult and mediate in Spanish.

Julie helps clients transform their lives, situations and relationships by resolving their conflicts in ways that allow them to move forward with more clarity, insight and understanding. Her cultural sensitivity, optimism, compassion, openness, and creativity are unparalleled.
