

Doug Barker, Esq.
Mediator

OVERVIEW:

Doug Barker was a very active and highly successful civil litigator from 1980 to 2014, both as a shareholder at San Diego's largest law firm, and, thereafter, as the managing partner of a full-service civil litigation firm. As a trial lawyer, he represented both plaintiffs and defendants in a wide variety of cases.

In addition to his litigation practice, Mr. Barker has been extremely active as an arbitrator and mediator for over 30 years. Beginning in 1984, he was a frequent arbitrator of cases referred by the court under the California Rules of Court. During the late 1990s, he trained to become a mediator and commenced his highly successful mediation practice. With time, that mediation practice grew until it became his exclusive professional area of practice.

In addition to his background as a lawyer, arbitrator, and mediator, Mr. Barker possesses broad academic achievements and life experiences that enable him to understand and empathize with the parties and issues in mediation. He was Editor-in-Chief of the San Diego Law Review, a holder of a number of advance degrees, an officer in the United State Army, and a college and high school teacher and coach. He presented more than 125 seminars on litigation and ADR skills.

To date, Mr. Barker has served as mediator in over 2,000 cases.
